

Tourism Law and Legislation

Assignment 1

21.01.2026

Student Name - Dev karan

Student ID : DE240248

In no more than 500 words each explain:

1- What are the different types of membership in UNWTO?

The United Nations World Tourism Organization (UNWTO) has a base club device designed to include governments in addition to non-governmental tourism stakeholders. In keeping with the UNWTO Statutes and basic files, there are 3 important types of membership: full individuals, partner members, and associate participants.

Full individuals are sovereign states that are contributors of the United Nations international locations or have been admitted following UNWTO techniques. They form the center of the enterprise and feature full voting rights within the preferred meeting. Full participants actively take part in policy-making, budget approval, election of the executive Council, and appointment of the Secretary-standard.

Companion contributors are territories or agencies of territories that aren't answerable for their outside family members however have competence in tourism topics. These territories participate in UNWTO activities to increase tourism rules and cooperation. at the same time as companion members can attend meetings and contribute to discussions, their vote casting rights are constrained and concern to unique conditions laid down within the Statutes.

Affiliate members encompass non-governmental groups, which consist of tourism companies, region groups, instructional institutions, neighborhood tourism governments, and alternate associations. Associate participants do not have balloting rights in statutory organs; however they play a essential advisory and consultative function. They contribute technical expertise, innovation, research, and enterprise perspectives, strengthening cooperation between tourism sectors. Accomplice participants are represented via the affiliate contributors Committee. collectively, the ones 3 membership training make certain that UNWTO operates as a entire international tourism platform, integrating governments, territories, and enterprise stakeholders to promote sustainable, accountable, and inclusive tourism improvement international.

2- Who qualifies as a Full Member of UNWTO?

A complete Member of UNWTO is defined as a sovereign state that meets unique criminal and institutional criteria mounted in the UNWTO Statutes. Frequently, any kingdom that is a member of the United Nations is eligible to become a complete member of the arena tourism business enterprise. Moreover, states that aren't participants of the UN but belong to a UN specialized company or the International Atomic Strength Business Enterprise might also qualify, with difficulty, for approval by using the UNWTO general meeting.

To qualify, countries have to officially follow for membership and accept the UNWTO Statutes. Admission is granted through a choice of the general assembly, commonly by a majority vote. As soon as admitted, complete individuals revel in complete rights and responsibilities inside the business enterprise.

Complete contributors have voting rights within the preferred assembly, allowing them to steer tourism policy-making at the global level. they're eligible to be elected to the executive Council, take part in subsidiary bodies, and make a contribution to shaping global tourism standards, suggestions, and declarations. Complete members additionally play a role in approving the UNWTO budget, planning programs, and the appointment of the secretary-general.

In going back, full members are required to satisfy their economic duties, observe UNWTO selections, and assist the organization's objectives. Those goals encompass promoting sustainable tourism, fostering international cooperation, supporting tourism records, and implementing ethical principles which includes those outlined inside the Manila announcement on world Tourism.

For that reason, full membership represents both a privilege and an obligation, putting states at the middle of world tourism governance under the UNWTO framework.