

Tourism Law and Legislation

Assignment 2

21.01.2026

Student Name - Dev karan

Student ID : DE240248

In no more than 500 words, each explain and 2-4 references:

1- What are subsidiary bodies in international tourism governance? Explain their general role within UNWTO.

Subsidiary bodies in worldwide tourism governance are specialized organs created through the principle of selection, making our bodies an international enterprise to support policy development, technical paintings, and implementation. in the United nations international Tourism corporation (UNWTO), subsidiary bodies are mounted by the general meeting and the executive Council to deal with unique thematic, regional, or technical issues associated with global tourism governance.

Inside the UNWTO framework, subsidiary bodies carry out an advisory and consultative role instead of appearing as impartial decision-makers. They help make sure that tourism rules are informed by using professional expertise, local perspectives, and technical accuracy. These are our bodies putting together pointers, draft pointers, and increased standards, which can be later submitted to the governing organs for final approval.

Subsidiary our bodies under the overall assembly consist of local Commissions and the sector Committee on Tourism Ethics. Local commissions ensure balanced geographical illustration and allow member states to talk about place-particular tourism challenges. The Arena Committee on Tourism Ethics oversees the promotion and interpretation of ethical concepts, which includes the global Code of Ethics for Tourism.

Subsidiary bodies underneath the executive council are in the main technical committees, inclusive of the Committee on Information, Committee on Sustainability, Committee on Tourism and Competitiveness, and Committee on Online Education. Those committees contribute technical outputs, enhance high-quality records, sell sustainable tourism practices, and beautify tourism training globally.

typical, subsidiary, our bodies fortify UNWTO's effectiveness by way of bridging policy and exercise. They beautify coordination, promote proof-primarily based decision-making, and ensure that tourism governance remains inclusive, sustainable, and aware of worldwide tourism demanding situations.

References :

- World Tourism Organization. (2023). UNWTO basic documents: Volume I – Statutes, rules of procedure, agreements (8th ed.). UNWTO.
- World Tourism Organization. (2012). Statutes of the World Tourism Organization. UNWTO.

2- What is the Manila Declaration on World Tourism (1980)? Why is it considered a milestone in tourism policy?

The Manila Declaration on International Tourism (1980) is a landmark coverage report adopted at the arena tourism convention held in Manila, Philippines, under the auspices of the arena tourism corporation (UNWTO). The declaration was adopted to clarify the authentic nature of tourism and redefine its function in a rapidly converting global context.

The Manila assertion is taken into consideration a milestone because it redefined tourism as more than, in simple terms, an economic activity. It diagnosed tourism as a social, cultural, ethical, political, and human activity that contributes to international knowledge and development. For the first time, tourism became formally linked to human rights, specifically the proper to relaxation, entertainment, holidays, and freedom of tour, as recognized by way of the general assertion of Human Rights.

Every other key contribution of the declaration is its sturdy emphasis on peace and worldwide cooperation. It states that tourism can best flourish in a weather of peace and protection, while simultaneously performing as a pressure that promotes mutual information, admiration, and confidence among nations. This dual dating located tourism as each dependent on and contributory to international peace.

The announcement also highlighted tourism's role in improvement, in particular in decreasing financial inequalities between evolved and growing countries. It called on states to adopt policies that encourage equitable access to tourism, protect cultural backgrounds, and protect the herbal environment.

Due to its holistic, imaginative, and prescient moral orientation and lengthy-term coverage impact, the Manila announcement remains a foundational record in worldwide tourism governance and sustainable tourism coverage.

References :

- World Tourism Organization. (1980). Manila Declaration on World Tourism. UNWTO. <https://doi.org/10.18111/unwtodeclarations.1980.01.01>
- World Tourism Organization. (2015). World Tourism Organization. In J. Jafari & H. Xiao (Eds.), Encyclopedia of tourism. Springer.